The Cultural Contradictions of Motherhood

Sharon Hays

"A lucid, probing examination of our culture's contradictory and troubled relationship to motherhood—and how it affects mothers....Hays is sensitive to the emotional issues involved—and equally astute in perceiving their sociopolitical context."

—Kirkus Reviews $25.00

Death of the Guilds Professions, States, and the Advance of Capitalism, 1930 to the Present

Elliott A. Krause

"A refreshing antidote to the prevailing wisdom on the power of professions....Should be on the reading list of every sociologist of the professions and any professional—whether doctor, lawyer, or teacher—brave enough to contemplate the prospects of their impending decline." —Charles Derber
